Dear Pat:

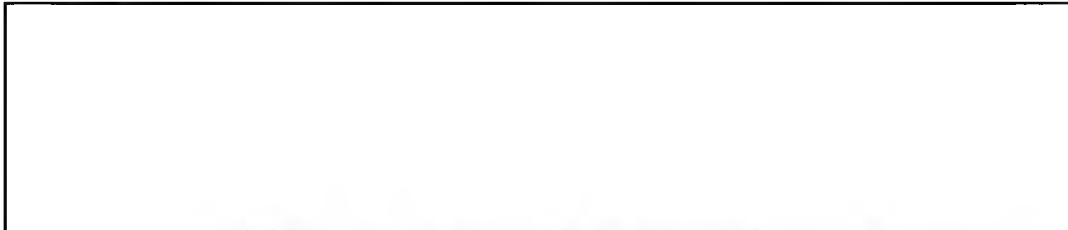

Herewith is a chart, in response to General Taylor's request, which attempts to show the relationship of USIB committees to USIB  It is a rather unconventional graphic but, I think, shows the relationships as accurately as any other chart we have been able to devise.

The precise procedures governing the appointment of chairmen of individual committees varies as between committees. As the chart indicates, they are all appointed

 The charters of individual committees provide in some cases that the appointment will be with the advice and consent of USIB. In other cases that the appointment shall be made "in consultation with" USIB. As a practical

I should of course be glad to come in and talk to you or General Taylor about this chart at any time.

I trust that my earlier communication has served to answer your inquiry about the  incident. If not, please let me know.

Sincerely,
